

Adams and Moore Receives Recognition from Chambers and Partners

14/10/2025

We are proud to announce that Chambers and Partners, the leading international guide to the legal profession, has ranked Adams & Moore LLP among the top shipping firms in the United Kingdom.

The rankings are based on extensive research and interviews with clients and peers across the market. We are deeply grateful to our clients for their positive feedback and continued trust in our work.

Chambers describes the firm as follows:

> "Adams & Moore efficiently advises prominent clients in the energy, shipping and insurance industries. The firm has experience assisting with debt recovery, vessel detention and deviation matters, installation of offshore production facilities, and damage to cargo claims."

Founded in 2023, Adams & Moore is delighted to receive such recognition so early in our journey, reflecting our commitment to excellence and client service.
